Amateur golf championship entries close to-night, but they will not be given out until the mails arrive from the West. The most prominent of the Metropolitan Golf Association entries will be Travis and Travers. They were distinguished at Shinnecock Hills after the former had won on the twenty-first hole as "Is" and "Err," but it will not be long before the latter will come into his kingdom Wheaton may be the appointed time, for the course should suit the youngster. It would be a great treat should Travers and Egan the final. The Olympic team contest will not have avery great entry, but there should be Massa-chusetts. Pennsylvania and Metropolitan Association teams in for the event, which is chiefly of interest as a relief from the usual "day before" desultory practising, when men who score well try to conceal it and players off their game tell whoppers to con their friends. As an annual contest of na-tional consequence the Olympic team match, unless the conditions are entirely changed, is absolutely without a future. It must be played each year at Wheaton and it is out of the question that teams will make long journeys for the sake of the one day's play.

To play for the trophy annually on the day before the championship, wherever that event is to be played, would be a higher condition to prove the sportsmanship of the Chicago Golf Club.

Malcolm McBurney, president of the In Malcoim McBurney, president of the Intercollegiate Golf Association, said last Saturday that the team championship trophy offered by the United States Golf Association had been formally accepted. It is to be a perpetual trophy and will contain the complete list of winning teams from the start. The present trophy, for which the boys chipped in $800, will be in play until won out.

Next Saturday the Mount Pleasant Field Next Saturday the Mount Pleasant Fleid Club of Ossining will be at home to the mem-bers of the Hudson River Golf Association. There is to be an eighteen hole handicap with a gross and two net score prizes, and several special competitions. Two years ago the Ardsley Club entertained the Hudson River Golf Association clubs in the same way but last year the handicap lapsed.

Gate money golf will not be a success near New York, say the clubmen, and moreover there is no club that would care to make money in that way. The match between will Anderson and Bernard Nicholls, at Au-Will Anderson and Bernard Nionolis, at Au-burn Park. Rochester, last week was a money-maker. The $100 purse and share of the gate money must have made a enug little pool as a stimulus to the two professionals. Nicholis won the first day and Anderson the second, the big day.

At a joint committee meeting of the Metropolitan Golf Association and the Fox Hills Golf Club an agreement was reached regarding the professional tournament at Fox Hills on Sept 14-18. The M. G. A. has voted that it shall be for their own professionals only and continued on the same lines annually. The offer of $100 in prizes from the Fox Hills committee, as tendered by Lionel H. Graham, was turned down for the reason that it would set a precedent that other clubs might not like to keep up. It was voted to make the first prize $150 and second $100, there to be six prizes in all and $600 in prize money.

Daniel Chauncey, president of the M. G. A., wishes it noted that the tricity match at Garden City will not be on Oct. 6 and 7 unless the dates are satisfactory to the presidents of the Boston and Philadelphia associations. He has not fixed the dates positively and will not until the two officials are heard from. The dates originally fixed for the tricity teams. Oct. 26 and 27, however, will not be available, as the Garden City committee has given up the week to the Intercollegiate Golf Association.

The recent open professional tournament which was played over the Van Cortlandt Park public links, has resulted in doing much good for the game. Charles Kirchner, who was responsible for this successful event, reports that it has been the means of plans being made for starting public links in Newark and in Syracuse. It has been reported that a similar tournament is being arranged to be played over the public links of Chicago and Boston.

The New York Herald cup, which has been presented to the New York Golf Club under deed of gift, will be played for on Aug. 31. Sept. 1 and 2. There will be a gold medal for the winner and a silver medal for the runner-up. Entries must be sent to William R. Moon, 68 Beaver street, city, and will close at noon on Aug. 30.

Two Teams Tied in Westchester Round Robin Doubles-Lecal Matches.

A spirited five set contest marked the final day's play in the round robin tennis doubles on Saturday at the Country Club of Westchester. Raymond D. Little and Robert Le Roy de-feating George L. Wrenn and Reginald Fincke 5-7, 1-6, 6-1, 6-4, 6-2. After a poor start Little and Le Roy got together and by brilliant te m work scored the necessary points. Wrenn and Fincke made a gallant fight for the match and after the second set seemed to be the winning pair. Their play fell off on the third set, Little and Le Roy allowing on the third set, Little and Le Roy allowing them but a single game. From this point on Little and Le Roy held matters safe, although the fourth set was a bit close.

The result of the day's play makes a tie for first place. A contest to decide matters will be arranged later at the convenience of the players. The standing follows: Won. Lest other matches went to the Hamilton players by default.

The New York Athletic Club, which was carded for a meeting with the Knickerbocker Field Club on the latter's courts in Flatbush, was unable to put a team in the field and therefore sent over its default.

Rain prevented the West Side Club matches at Montciair, and a similar condition at Englewood obliged a postponement of the Englewood Field Club meeting with the New York Tennis Club players.

On the Knickerbocker Field Club courts some friendly matches were held on Saturday with the Kings County Tennis Club players.

The visitors took mest of the honors, all but two of the contests being lost by the home players.
